Myths surrounding gifted learners

- All students are gifted
- A gifted child must be gifted at everything
- Promoting giftedness promotes elitism
- It is always possible to close the 'gap' - the others will eventually catchup
 - provided we slow down the academically gifted students!
- These students will make it on their own

Intellectual characteristics of gifted students

- Ability to manipulated abstract symbols
- Higher level of concentration
- Well developed memory
- Early language interest and development
- Need for fast paced work
- Preference for independent work
- Curiosity and / or multiple interests
- Ability to generate original ideas

Emotional characteristics of gifted students

- Sense of humour
- High levels of energy
- Strong sense of social justice and fairness
- Altruism, unselfishness and idealism
- Strong attachments and commitments
- Emotional intensity, empathy
- Perfectionism
- Preference for older friends
- Aesthetic sensitivity

Why cater for gifted students?

- To engage high achieving students
 - To set appropriate expectations for all students
 - To prevent underachievement and unnecessary misbehaviour
 - To lift the glass ceiling
 - To provide an environment for deep thinking and learning to occur
 - students and teachers
 - But what about mainstream classes then?

Why SEAL?

- You enjoy being challenged.
- You want your learning characteristics to be considered and utilised.
- You like exploring issues and concepts with deep meanings.
- You want to be surrounded by others who will push your learning to new personal bests.
- You want more pathway options available in senior secondary.

What our students say about SEAL?

- "I love being challenged in ways that I had not thought possible."
 - "My teachers don't mind me asking lots questions (even if they don't always know the answers straight away)."
 - "I now have friends who are interested in the same things as me."
 - "It's nice not to be different"
 - "My teachers understand how I think and learn"
 - "SEAL makes school a good place now"

Why SEAL @ WC?

Only accredited SEAL school in S.W. Victoria

- Continued accountability via accreditation.
- Rigorous selection process via EduTest test.

Why SEAL @ WC?

Part of TAASS network of schools

- In Term 3, SEAL students gather in TAASS network to complete gifted learning tasks.
- Sharing of curriculum resources and teacher professional development across TAASS schools.

Why SEAL @ WC?

Seventeenth year running the program

- Constantly refining teacher selection, course structure and curriculum delivery.

SEAL @ WC

We changed the structure in 2021!

- To remain in TAASS we have aligned with other SEAL schools in Victoria.
- All students now complete secondary school in six years to maximise their potential to thrive.

Year 7 SEAL Course Structure

Year long subjects:

3 x English	2 x Humanities	2 x Science	2 x Languages
3 x Maths	2 x PE	1 x Health	1 x Visual Art

Semester length subjects:

1 x Drama	1 x Music	2 x Food Studies	2 x Digital Technology
-----------	-----------	------------------	------------------------
